We End an Era . . .

As our era in a new school ends, we enter an era of growth and development. The struggle to establish Finneytown High School as an outstanding center of education extends into a phase in which the high standards and tradition set during our early years must be intensified. We begin this step this year. The fresh spirit and unity arising from our new administration, our sports teams, and from our enthusiastic student body, pulsate continually throughout the entire school. To meet the challenge of maintaining our fine reputation, the school strives to create an atmosphere in which this throbbing spirit will increase.

Seniors, as they crowd a final busy year of high school with studying and extra-curricular activities, end their era as the leaders and the pace-setters of F.H.S. They combined their varied talents, and now leave a strong base upon which others may build.

Omega . . . Begin Again

The cycle of Alpha and Omega is never ending. As one Alpha fades into an Omega, we begin again. Before an Omega ceases, one is in a world of different experiences, ideas, and spirit.

As students graduate from Finneytown, they depart as better people, and leave Finneytown a stronger school system. As they enter the completely new experience of college, business, or military service, underclassmen begin and end the Alphas and Omegas of the halls and classrooms of Finneytown. Finneytown has kindled ambitions for the future. One leaves hoping to fulfill them.

Finneytown's
New Spirit
and Vitality
in Action

A new beginning arouses new feelings, especially that of new spirit, in the student body. Spirit is intangible; it can only be described in abstract terms. The hoarse cheering of an excited crowd at a crucial football or basketball game, or the pride gained from achieving one's best grades is SPIRIT.

A New Start with . . .

New Spirit . . .

Spirit lives within the heart and mind of each student, and passes from one to the other until it effervesces through the entire school.

The vitality of newness sweeps over F.H.S.: new faces within the student body, a new faculty offering new challenges, and a new administration establishing new policies. A new Senior class leads the way in sports, activities and unity.

Juniors busily plan for the Prom. The Sophomores' variety show implants itself as a tradition. Freshmen plunge directly into the school spirit and begin fund-raising activities. Our football team increases its winning power, and our basketball team proves itself champion for the second consecutive time. Academically and athletically, our school reaches a new peak in its potential.

All are important parts of the cycle of Alpha and Omega at Finneytown High School.

And New Achievements . . .

and New Experiences

Dedication

Finneytown's fame throughout the Cincinnati area and the state of Ohio is due, in great part, to the outstanding coaching talent of Earl "Stu" Miller.

He has guided the Finneytown Wildcat basketball team through consecutive league championships and tournament play in his second and third years as Varsity coach.

His fine leadership, frankness, and exemplary sportsmanship have gained him the respect and admiration of both the school and community.

His team love him, not only because he instills in them a desire to play their best, but primarily because of his honesty.

In the classroom his great sense of humor is ever-present, providing an enjoyable atmosphere for learning. As a phys-ed. instructor, he stresses physical fitness; a basis for building strong youth.

Coach Miller has given much of himself for his team, his students, and the school. Inspiring others to do the same, he is instrumental in contributing to Finneytown's excellent reputation.

Counselors

Since a school is such a complex organization, it requires the services of many individuals of varied talents. The smooth operation of FHS is a credit to the persons pictured on these pages. In his first year at Finneytown, Mr. Strunk won the confidence and cooperation of the parents, students, and faculty. As Mr. Strunk's secretary, Mrs. Phillips prepares the morning bulletins, meets visitors, and answers countless phone calls and questions. Mr. Moore, as assistant principal, is responsible for the purchase of textbooks, the discipline of students, and the issuing of locks and lockers. His secretary, Mrs. Danenhauer, is also school treasurer. Mrs. Ruley and Mr. Frey are the two full-time counselors; Mrs. Ruley works with seniors and Mr. Frey primarily with eighth graders. Mrs. Drake does the clerical work and makes appointments for the counselors.

In Memoriam

Mr. Alfred Lloyd Kress, teacher of mathematics and science, departed this life on September 15, 1965. His illness was brief and his death most sudden. True to the principles of his profession, he had great affection for all youth, studied many years at many outstanding institutions to prepare himself most diligently and effectively, and put forth great effort that the students of his classes might be successful in their studies. Death came at the age of fifty-six years.

His college preparation for teaching began with the granting of the A.B. degree to him by the University of Cincinnati in 1933. He was elected to Phi Beta Kappa in 1933. He continued his studies and in 1943 received his M.A. from Columbia University.

A varied and dedicated teaching career began in the schools of Northern Kentucky. In 1954 he transferred his teaching career to Ohio when he began teaching at Wyoming. He taught also at Terrace Park and in September, 1957, joined the staff of the Finneytown Schools where he taught in the Junior High School grades until the time of his death.

Perhaps the most significant tribute that could be given him is to quote the statement made on his application for a position on the Finneytown staff when he wrote that one of his leading hobbies and interests was "helping others (including teaching)."

His friendly manner to all and his affection for youth and education will be greatly missed in the years ahead.

Student Council

All students must register before the student body elections for President and Vice-President.

Student Council functions to maintain and to increase the understanding between the administration and the student body. The Council is the governing body for all student organizations, and regulates the social functions of the school. Other duties include selling ice cream in the cafeteria, chartering buses for away sports activities, and planning and assisting with assemblies. Student Council is active in Area Student Council and this year sponsored Careers Night to aid students with their choice of future occupations, and co-sponsored International Day with the American Field Service.

National Honor Society

The Telford A. Whitaker Chapter of the National Honor Sociey is composed of students who exemplify the four ideals of the organization: character, scholarship, leadership, and service, and who maintain a 3.26 average with no more than one C yearly average.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Wentzel, the Honor Society conducts annual Tapping and Induction ceremonies, an alumni reunion, and a picnic honoring the Senior members. A tutorial system has been established to offer free aid in any subject to members of the student body. Many money-making activities provide the funds for a scholarship which is awarded to an outstanding Senior.

American Field Service

"WALK TOGETHER, TALK TOGETHER,
O YE PEOPLES OF THE EARTH:
THEN AND ONLY THEN SHALL YE HAVE PEACE."

The American Field Service promotes world understanding through a student exchange program. Working with the adult community chapter, the Finneytown High School chapter raised funds for a student through bake sales, A.F.S. Penny Day, a sock-hop, and adult bridge parties. International Day, sponsored in conjunction with Student Council, was the most important event of the year. Foreign students from neighboring areas visited Finneytown and attended classes with their individual hosts for one day. This year two students from Finneytown, Susan Miller and Mike Johnstone, lived in Germany and Switzerland, respectively, for a year as A.F.S.'ers.

Célio Guercio became a member of the Class of 1966 early in the year. From Juiz de Fora, Brazil, Célio immediately adjusted to Finneytown routine. He actively participated in A.F.S., Hi-Y, French Club, and Student Council despite a heavy schedule of chemistry, French, Contemporary Civilization, and English, and his duties as an A.F.S.'er. Célio, Finneytown's fourth exchange student, resided with the John Lindhjem family. His friendly, cheerful manner and his wit will be greatly missed. Célio was the best representative of good will and understanding that Brazil could have sent to Finneytown.

Célio mixes an interesting concoction in Mrs. Goebel's office.

Célio's American family, the Lindhjems. Chris and Andy on the stool; Tim, Mr. and Mrs. Lindhjems and Célio on the couch.

Susan Miller's home in Braunschweig, Germany.

Susan Miller writes of her experience as an exchange student:

"Unique" is a word you could use to describe my experience as an exchange student. "Educational", "maturing", and "interesting" are also good. But one word I would choose is "worthwhile" because it took lots and lots of time thinking and planning to initiate and to continue A.F.S. This time, so precious in today's world, is worth every bit of its cost. What I've learned about Germany in this year is worth the year alone. But I also have learned what it means to be an American and what America has done for me. I never knew what true national pride was until I came to Germany. Not that people were always insulting the U.S., but I got more than enough teasing: I speak funny English; everything in America is super-big; everybody in America is rich and drives a monster car, etc.

Laughingly defending your country and her customs is sometimes hard, especially when you always have to remember "international relations." One question I'll never forget is "How do you like Germany?" And then "But it's nicer than America." The Germans have a habit of answering their own questions.

But the advantages of being an A.F.S.'er are far greater than the disadvantages. Meeting new people, talking to them in their language, (which is the best way to get to know them), and then saying good-bye again, maybe forever, are all part of an A.F.S.'er's life and I wouldn't have missed it for the world."

Susan Miller's foreign family, the Hoffman's: Mother, Father, Wolfgang, and baby Michael.

Mike Johnstone writes of his experience as an A.F.S. student in Bern, Switzerland:

"What is a Senior year? It is the final year of academic and social development in preparation for college or for a job, and for our place in society. The courses taken are difficult, requiring a good deal of study, but time is always found for the football and basketball games, and attendance at social functions is usually not lacking.

My Senior year was certainly special. There were no football and basketball games and socially, a few private parties had to suffice. My schedule was full, considering I was taking twelve subjects—naturally a tremendous amount of time was spent studying. The strict traditional rules of our school were enforced as they have been for more than one hundred years. Amusement was reserved for vacations, but then it was "great"; skiing in the Alps and traveling through Switzerland were novel as well as fun.

With the acquisition of a new language, and the customs, and culture of another land, I received a new view point of America, myself, and of life. I realized that the modern, busy American is not exactly welcomed by everyone. Constant defense of American foreign policies and undertakings necessitates a closer look and analysis of America and of all it entails.

Observation of Swiss ideas and practices has given me new beliefs and has strengthened old ones. Through my experience I have certainly profited and have acquired ideas that will help me throughout life. I only hope everyone in the Class of '66 has had as successful a year as I."

The National Thespians Society

With the aid of Mrs. Lashley, the Finneytown Chapter 2700 of the National Thespians Society completed its first full year. Students are eligible for membership after earning ten points for acting or technical work in a dramatic production. The Thespians are a closely knit group of students who enjoy dramatics. Many of the students took part in "Dear Ruth" and "The Music Man," the two major dramatic shows of this year.

Chuck had a leading role in both "Dear Ruth" and "The Music Man".

Several members of National Thespians had prominent parts in "Dear Ruth".

Several new ideas were incorporated into the 1966 Finis. For the first time in the school's history, a name was given to the annual; the students voted for their choice when they bought their books. This edition is also the first "complete" yearbook in that it contains a pictorial review of the whole year—from the first day of school through graduation.

The size of the book has been increased to a college size yearbook. The problems of picture-taking, planning, selling subscriptions and meeting the budget occupied the time of the staff of fifteen, under the direction of Donn Delson and Sue Huelsebusch. Even before this book had gone to press, Juniors were planning for 1967.

Better count your change!

Newspaper

After solving the most vital problems of sponsorship and of financial backing, the Wildcat's Tale once again went to press. Under the supervision of Miss Hardy, the newspaper staff sold yearly subscriptions before printing the first issue. Since its troublesome and shaky beginning the staff issued a monthly paper.

Dorothy, Christy, and Sally carefully select pictures for their sections in the annual.

Band Day and the Carthage Fair. With a large influx of members, the Band successfully played in several concerts during the year. Besides the traditional activities, many of the members participated in a pep band which added to the spirit at the basketball games. Others played in the orchestra for the annual musical production, "The Music Man," and entered district and state contests. A banquet at which outstanding members received awards for their fine work ended the year.

Class of '66 Sponsors Homecoming

With tongue in cheek Donn Delson, Senior Class President, honors Queen Sally Whetsel.

On October 29, 1965 the Finneytown Wildcats hosted their cousins, the Harrison Wildcats in the Fourth Annual Homecoming game sponsored by the Class of '66. Pre-game activities included a parade which terminated at the high school in a mass pep rally and bonfire. The coronations of Queen Sally Whetsel and the selection of the Junior float as the most outstanding, highlighted the halftime ceremonies. The eventful evening closed with the dance in honor of our victorious Wildcats, alumni, and Sally Whetsel and her court: Sally Hilmer, Leanne Brown, Mary Gardiner, Linda Lawson, and Merlene Schain.

Junior's prize winning float warns Harrison of impending danger.

The traditional G.A.A. Girls' Week honors the girls of F.H.A. in grades seven through twelve. The activities of the week included an assembly on fashion, Dress-Up Day, Teacher-Appreciation Day, the Mother-Daughter banquet, and a picnic. A semi-formal turn-about dance, 'Over the Rainbow', culminated a busy week of fun and enjoyment.

Age'n Gauge'n

Two excellent performances were given in the fall. The Sophomore Class was the first class ever to write and produce its own variety show entitled Age'n Gauge'n. Mrs. Lashley succeeded once again, in directing a full two act play, "Dear Ruth."

"But he doesn't know the territory!"

The Music Man

And this little piggy went wee, wee, wee.

Teather ... Feather ... Fhip ... !

Under the direction of Mr. Swartzel, the Music, Art, and Drama departments combined their talents to successfully produce Meredith Willson's "The Music Man". Chuck Hubbard and Stu Kandell alternated as Harold Hill and Charlie Cowell; Sandi Stease played Marion the Librarian, and members of the student body participated in the orchestra and in the stage chorus. The show was presented April 14, 15, 16, and 18.

Football

The 1966 season for the Cats was not as successful as the '65 season, for they won only two games while losing eight. Coach Williams, assisted by Coaches Hartker, Dudgeon and Bean had high hopes for their boys, but after an encouraging start, the team was held scoreless in five of the remaining games. A total of 100 points was scored, compared to the previous year's total of 150.

The good attendance at all games showed that the students still supported their team, win or lose. Optimism never dies, and one could always hear someone saying, "Wait 'til next year!"

*League games

Our Wildcats made 1966 a very good year for basketball. Challenged by those who thought they could not repeat last year's fine performance, F-Troop, under the expert guidance of Coach Miller compiled a 19—2 record for the season.

After losing their first game to LaSalle by one point, our Wildcats were not defeated again until Middletown overcame them by an 81—69 score in the semi-finals of the Oxford District Tournament.

The Wildcats, the Best in the West, won the championship of the Western Division of the Hamilton County League with a record of 11—0. A win which particularly pleased the team and the fans was the Cats first defeat of the Oak Hills Highlanders.

Mark Werner, the team's most valuable player, scored 44 points in the game against Norwood, setting a record for a Finneytown player.

Mark Werner, Gary McCool, Tom Peddicord, Terry Wilburn and Steve King made up the starting team. John High was a frequent substitute.

The Reserve Basketball team had its best season to date, tallying up eleven wins to five losses. They won third place in the county standings. Several close games made the final results even more significant. One game was won by one point, one by three, and one by five. Coach Kaylor pointed out that the Reserve team was the first team to defeat Norwood after their winning streak of ten games, and that they stopped N.C.H.'s series of wins at eleven.

G.A.A.

Carol has better luck when she doesn't look.

Donna shows the girls how it's done.

Inter-class as well as interscholastic competition keeps the girls of G.A.A. busy throughout the whole school year. Archery, softball, tennis, hockey, volleyball, basketball and horseback riding provide a variety of activity for the many girls involved. Miss Feldkamp, aided by her board and other faculty members, instructs and organizes the many sports. Particularly successful this year was the softball team, coached by Mr. Vockell.

Junior High G.A.A. was formed this year to stimulate the interest of the younger girls. It became the responsibility of the older members to help Mrs. Ellwein in working with them.

The enthusiasm shown by the girls, and the excellent leadership given by Miss Feldkamp guarantee more victories for the teams and a greater enrollment in the future.

Thanks to Our Leader

Mr. David Bean; his wife, Sue; Dave, and Buttons in front of their fireplace.

Cries against Senioritis have echoed in the ears of the members of the Class of '66, since we first united as Sophomores. The voice of this opposition belongs to the man, who, in our opinion, is the finest and most dedicated class advisor ever, Mr. David Bean. Encouraging both individual academic and athletic excellence, he has promoted not only class, but also school pride and spirit.

Mr. Bean's inspiring leadership has greatly contributed to our many accomplishments. Car washes, our first major class activity as Sophomores, were enlivened by scorching water and sponge fights in which Mr. Bean was usually the prime target. The following year four class members were first-string players on the winning Wildcat varsity basketball team. Working diligently, we raised funds for our very successful prom, Tahitian Holiday, held at the Netherland Hilton Pavillon Caprice.

As Seniors, the Class of '66 sponsored both the Homecoming Festivities and the Christmas Prom. The five starting members of our championship F-Troopers were Seniors and brought great acclaim to themselves and to the school. After a year of excitement and anticipation, the Class of '66 graduated in the Fifth Annual Commencement ceremony at Finneytown High School.

Looking back on this wonderful chapter in our lives, we will always remember the man who boldly lead us through the few trying as well as the rewarding times. Neither will we forget his wife, who generously gave of her time, her help, and her husband.

To the old philosopher and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. David Bean, we dedicate our Senior Section in thanks for three marvelous years.

Accomplishments

Mr. Bean reads the card that came with his gift from the Senior Class.

Mark Bogen was awarded the David Crawley Memorial Scholarship from the Finneytown Business Men's Association.

Diane Burggraf receives her P.T.A. scholarship from Mrs. Dingley.

John Sellins won the Mutual Saving and Loan scholarship.

Célio bids farewell to his friends in Finneytown on Honor's Night.

The 1966 Junior-Senior Prom

Dancing to the music of Denny Heglin and his orchestra, these couples enjoy an evening in "Shangri-La."

Sandy keeps a watchful eye on the camera.

The Junior-Senior Prom of 1966, sponsored by the Class of 1967, was held at the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel on May 27. Denny Heglin and his orchestra provided the music for a wonderful evening in Shangri-La, the theme of the Prom. This year a King was honored as well as a Queen. Miss Leanne Brown and Mr. Célio Guercio reigned over the festivities. Their court included Diane Broberg, Beth Garrison, Kathy Holmes, Linda Lawson, John Carsmen, Steve King, Ron Mag-nan, and Terry Wilburn. A buffet supper and an after-the-Prom bowling party completed a perfect night.

A pagoda adds to the Oriental atmosphere of the Prom.

Ron Magnan escorts Leanne Brown to the Coronation.

Prom King, Célio Guercio, crowns his Queen (also his date), Leanne Brown.

1966 Prom King and Queen

QUEEN CANDIDATES: Kathy Holmes, Beth Garrison, Linda Lawson, Diane Broberg, and Leanne Brown, who was obviously just elected Queen.

Celio and Leanne enjoy their royal status.

Graduation—Class of 1966

Mr. Moore introduces the Commencement speaker, Mr. Francis Dale, President and Publisher of the Cincinnati Enquirer.

Key to success: Discipline, Direction, and Devotion.

Mr. Lasonczyk leads the Class of 1966 in its class song, "Climb Every Mountain."

Linda Lawson receives her diploma from Mr. Patterson, President of the school board.

Donna Emmert doesn't want to leave.

Kitty Ebinger hurries towards her final reward—her diploma.

Leanne Brown leads the way—this time it's not a rehearsal!

Terry looks relieved!

Mr. David Bean, Junior Class Advisor, and his wife.

On May 28, 1966, the Class of 1966 transformed the Netherland Hilton Pavillon Caprice into a "Tahitian Holiday" with decorations of palm trees and fish nets. The evening began with a formal dinner and ended with an after-the-Prom bowling party sponsored by the Class of 1965. Frankie Brown and his orchestra provided the dance music for this wonderful evening. Miss Susan McClure reigned as Prom Queen. Her court included: Kathy Gravitt, Linda High, Chris Jackson, Cindy Johnson, Linda Nelson, Sue Topits, and Nancy Wieland.

Kathy Gravitt may be tired but at least she's smiling!

and Graduation

On that long fateful walk.

A twinge of uncertainty, but a steadfast hope.

Sue Trent, Salutatorian for the Class of '65, welcomes all on this momentous occasion.

Today Finneytown, tomorrow the world.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Robin Ruck, Vice President; Sandy Oyler, President; Mr. Wagner, Advisor; Shirley Love, Secretary; Cathy Morgan, Treasurer.

I don't care what you say, Marty, that isn't the way to make a Molotov Cocktail.

Juniors

Led by four energetic young ladies and the skillful guidance of Mr. Wagner, class advisor, the Junior Class worked industriously planning and raising funds for the 1966 Prom entitled "Shangri-La". A Shindig with A-Go-Go girls, a St. Patrick's Prance, a Junior High dance, and bake sales were the chief fund-raising projects. A class party in the spring, organized by the officers and a ten member executive board, climaxed a year of hard-work and fun.

Sophomores

The Class of '68 entered its second year of operation with "Age'N Gauge'N", a variety show produced and directed by class members and with the handling of a book-store as a service to the students. Advised by Mr. Connelly and Mr. Alexander, the Sophomores planned the "Dogpatch Drag" which proved to be one of the most successful dances of the year. Other fund raising projects included bake sales, car washes, and paper drives. For relaxation from these activities, they took advantage of a heavy snow and held a sledding and skating party.

Freshmen

Organized early in the fall, the Freshmen Class plunged immediately into high school life. With the aid of Miss Collins, class advisor, they initiated the sale of horns and a Valentine's Day Sock Hop honoring the Seniors. The enthusiasm and leadership shown during this first year has provided the class with a firm foundation for its high school future.

Student Council

The Junior High Student Council, advised by Mr. Craig, meets twice a month. Activities this year included a fund raising drive for The Neediest Kids of All and a dance for their fellow students. Student Council provides an opportunity for Junior High students to actively participate in student government and to gain experience as future leaders.

Band

The Junior High Band rehearses three days a week under the direction of Mr. William Swartzel. The seventh and eighth graders who form this group perform at several concerts, assemblies and football games during the year. In solo, ensemble, and band contests, they competed with Junior High students from surrounding areas. The Hamilton County Junior High Music Festival climaxed the end of the year. Eighth graders attend band camp during the summer in preparation for entrance into the Senior Band.

G.A.A.

This year G.A.A. membership included the junior high girls with Mrs. Ellwein as their sponsor. A Junior High board of representatives was elected to organize sports activities for the members. While learning to work as a team, the girls gain a better appreciation of sports and training for senior high G.A.A.

IN APPRECIATION

We cannot let out 1966 Finis go to press without thanking, in some public manner, the many persons who have helped us. Without the cooperation shown by the administration, the faculty, and the student body, we would not have been able to solve the many problems which arose in publishing an entirely new kind of yearbook for F.H.S. The financial support of our advertisers and patrons made it possible for us to increase the size of the book and to include color pages.

We would especially like to thank the Rob Paris Studio. Their patience, time and advice far exceeded the monetary gain they received from the Senior portraits.

To us, though, the person really responsible for this book is you, the subscriber. If you had not been willing to order this book last September, sight unseen, there would have been no pictorial record of the past year.

In short, we hope it has been worth waiting for.

Twenty-eight students and advisors leave on European Tour. (Picture: courtesy Fred Straub, the Cincinnati Enquirer.)

Autographs

Now Peter, Mags
just cause
leaving of the world, ya know, I'm still here! This year's annual was probably not worth the time waiting for! If I have to sit behind you in History the whole year, see you in Biology, smell your B.O. in look at you in the halls, about if I don't make it through the
I suppose we'll go downtown, etc.
passing World History you'll need it! Well, Good luck
see ya, Don't

Diane,
I'm well here
I'm saying good bye to my best friend. We weren't best friends like a lot of other people when we were first other around when we needed each other.
(like Friday night when we haven't had to do best walk times together. I just lots + lots of good ones. I always remember the way you laugh and have the dumb way you are lucky to have each other. Both you and Jerry are lucky to have each you do or even want to do. I hope there always be a funny place in your mind for me. I don't think I ever laugh as hard as when with you. I miss you a lot. I hope I can find someone out there as nice as you.
Lots of love,
Debbie
